

WELLBORN LOCALS.

Dr. T. J. Hackney and R. M. Carver, of the firm of Hackney & Co., turned home the first of the week on Baltimore, where they had been to buy their fall and winter stock of goods. They will open up in the brick building formerly owned by C. Olliff. While in Baltimore, Mr. Carver also bought a nice stock of goods for the firm of Carver & Stannell.

The new drug store has been completed and Dr. Smithson & Co. have moved thereto. Mr. C. B. Olliff has had the old drug store building moved and is making changes and improvements. He will also enlarge the building and move his stock of merchandise thereto. His new goods will arrive in a few days, and from what your correspondent can learn, he intends carrying a very large stock.

W. A. McLeran, one of our well-known merchants, left Tuesday for New York to buy his fall and winter stock of goods. He was accompanied by Mrs. McLeran, his daughter, Miss Blanch and Miss Blanch Brown. They will return about September 20th.

Mrs. J. W. Morgan left Tuesday for Atlanta and other points in Georgia, thence to Henderson, N. C. We wish for her a pleasant trip and hope her health may be fully restored.

The protracted meeting at Mount Pleasant Baptist church closed last Sunday night. The church was revived and four additions were added to the membership. Rev. Mosley was assisted during the latter part of the meeting by Rev. W. F. Thompson, of Waycross, Ga.

Rev. Cason also closed his meeting at the Bulah Church last Friday night, as he was compelled to leave Saturday. There was one addition to the church.

Rev. Cason is a good man and an able minister, and the people here are sorry to lose his services. He has only one more appointment here, the third Sunday in September, after which he goes to study and better prepare himself for the ministry.

Died at this place on Saturday, August 25, Miss Sallie Dees, wife of Noah Dees after an illness of only a few days. She leaves a devoted husband, mother, sister and brother, and an infant baby only one week old. Mrs. Dees was formerly Miss Sallie Mudock. She had lived here her entire life. She was a kind loving woman, of fine disposition, and although not a member of any church she loved and feared God and lived the life of a Christian woman. She was aged about 28 years.

Goss & McLeran are getting in their goods and are busy getting their stock in shape.
